

Incidental Counselling

2 DAY WORKSHOP

This two day course provides an approach to working with people from refugee backgrounds, including asylum seekers, in a range of settings.

Participants will gain incidental counselling and other skills for handling difficult and distressing situations. The workshop involves presentations, practical exercises, roleplays and discussions in large and small groups.

CONTENT INCLUDES

- Further examination of the impact of past and current trauma
- Incidental counselling skills for a range of potential situations
- The emotional responses of workers and implications for practice
- Building good working relationships with traumatised clients
- Cross-cultural considerations
